NEXT MEETING: BARCROFT RESIDENTS TO SHARE TRAVEL EXPERIENCES IN COMMUNITY "SLIDE SHOW".

In what is developing into a neighborhood tradition, the January meeting of the Association will feature the slides and commentary of several Barcroft residents on their travels. Areas and topics scheduled to be discussed and pictured are Japan, European folklore, and the U.S. Park system.

All are invited to attend and bring slides that they feel might be of interest to the audience. Call Phyllis Kinsey (892-5962) for more details or just show up with your slides.

As usual, meeting time is the first Thursday of the month, January 4th, 8PM, at the Barcroft Community House, 8th and Buchanan Streets.

CHRISTMAS PARTY A SUCCESS!

The December 7th Community Christmas celebration proved to be an enjoyable evening for all who came, especially the children. We would like to thank especially the members of the Wakefield High School Band who provided musical entertainment. Many thanks to all who assisted in preparing for the occasion.

FUN FOR CHILDREN AT THE COLUMBIA PIKE LIBRARY.

For those Barcroft parents who often have bored preschool children on their hands, the Columbia Pike Library (816 South Walter Reed Drive /920-6440) has a regular Wednesday program of story telling and movies. Story hour commences at 10:30AM and movies are shown at 2 and 4PM. Similar programs are held at the Central Library (527-4777) and other Branches.

GOT A PROBLEM WITH THE COUNTY GOVERNMENT? TELL IT TO THE BOSSLADY!

In a departure from tradition, the new Chairperson of the County Board, Dorothy Grotos, has announced that she is setting aside regular times to meet with County citizens concerning their complaints, problems and advice.

If citizens (including County employees) wish to speak with Mrs. Grotos in confidence, she will be available in her County Board office from 9-12 noon by appointment on Mondays and the same morning hours on Wednesdays without appointment.

Mrs. Grotos stressed that these hours are not all-inclusive, and that she would be very willing to meet with individual citizens and groups whenever needed and practical.

For further information and to set an appointment, contact the County Board offices at 558-2261.

SHORT AND SWEET: Due to the distractions of the Holidays, the related scarcity of community news, and the general need to conserve energy by keeping hot air indoors this month's Newsletter is only one page..

HAPPY NEW YEAR !!!
